Instructions to Replace a Mutilated Passport Book

First, each applicant will need to bring the following items to an authorized passport acceptance facility. Advise the clerk at the facility that an expediting service will be hand carrying the application to the passport office. The clerk should administer the oath, have the applicant sign the form, collect the government fees, seal the documents up in an envelope and hand it back. This envelope must remain sealed, be delivered to Perry International within 3 days, and include the following documents.

- Application form DS-11 (It MUST be completed online from our link in step 2 and then printed. The Passport Office will not accept any other version of the application. Do NOT sign the application until instructed to do so by the passport acceptance facility clerk.)
- 1 passport quality, color photograph (It must be 2x2 inches, with an image size between 1 and 1-3/8 inches, and full front view. No glasses, uniforms, hats, or coats are allowed.)
- A certified birth certificate, or a Certificate of Naturalization (Certified means it has a seal from the issuing office. No photocopies or hospital certificates.)
- The mutilated passport
- A driver's license or government issued ID (This will be looked at and given back. It will NOT go in the sealed envelope.)
- 2 checks for the U.S. government fees (One for $170 and one for $35, Do not include return shipping fees on the government checks. The $170 check should be made out to Department of State and goes in the sealed envelope. The $35 check gets made out to the clerks office and will depend what office that is. The clerk will keep this check.)
- 1 letter of authorization with an original signature
- Proof of departure (For proof of departure there are 3 items that can be used: ticket copies from an airline, an itinerary on travel agent letterhead, or a company letter stating specific travel plans. If using a company letter, the letter will need to have specific travel dates and an original signature by someone other than the traveler.)

Second, after going to the acceptance facility and getting a sealed envelope, overnight the sealed envelope AND the following items, which MUST be outside the sealed envelope, to Perry International, 79 W. Monroe St. #1225, Chicago, IL 60603.
